

FOOD SERVICE & HOSPITALITY TRAINING

RIVERDALE IMMIGRANT WOMEN'S CENTRE (RIWC) is offering a unique individualized 10-week skills training program focused on the food and hospitality sector.

Includes a 6-month post-program and hiring support for job maintenance

Certifications:
Food Handlers, WHMIS

Supports:
Housing; supportive counselling; referrals as needed

Who is this program for?

Unemployed/Underemployed Women

or

Individuals Self-identified with the 2SLGBTQ+ Community who meet the following criteria:

- 18+ years of age;
- live in Toronto;
- English language proficiency;
- basic computer skills;
- interest/previous experience in the food service and hospitality sector.

When are classes?

Classes & training opportunities throughout the week;
ongoing registration begins on June 13th

How much does it cost?

Free

A mask is required while on the premises.

What supports/training are available?

- Food and hospitality skills training;
- Customized hands-on learning activities in café management, events management, catering, cooking, baking, office administration, and social entrepreneurship;
- In-house placement in social enterprises (i.e., café, community kitchen, reception, art gallery, and events space);
- Career exploration, goal setting, job coaching, and resume building;
- Job searching and interviewing skills in the Canadian Workplace;
- Foundational supports (e.g., life skills, financial literacy, nutritional counseling);
- Personal supports (e.g., service navigation, housing support, and referrals);
- Personal and professional communication skills.

How do I register?

Please send an enquiry
(along with your resume)
to fsht_uw@riverdalehub.ca or call (416) 465-6021