

PARTICIPANTS WANTED!

Conversations About Workplace Diversity

Riverdale Immigrant Women's Centre (RIWC) is recruiting participants to participate in a series of 2 Conversation Groups about workplace diversity and inclusion in the City of Toronto.

To Qualify: We are looking for individuals identifying within BIPOC and 2SLGBTQQIA+ communities who are working age and who have experienced barriers to equity and inclusion in the workplace.

Participants who commit to participating in a full series of 2 sessions will be eligible to receive a $50 honorarium and TTC tickets to cover your time and travel. Receive an additional $100 when you refer and register 5 new participants to the project.

Interested in participating?

Scan the QR code or visit us at www.riwc.ca to sign up for one of our groups.

If you have any questions about our project, you can email us at christian@riverdalehub.ca or victoriaogley@riverdalehub.ca.

Description of Initiative:

RIWC will be hosting 4 Conversation Groups for BIPOC (2 sessions) and 2SLGBTQQIA+ (2 sessions) in May 2025. Each session will last 90 minutes with a 15 minute break. Complimentary snacks and refreshments will be served.

You will participate in group discussions, interactive activities and provide our facilitators with recommendations to improve diversity, equity and inclusion in Toronto's labour market.
